If contract is broken and consignments are removed before the end of the three month period a 20% fee of the original consigned price must be paid before receiving your items. Our staff will notify you by phone at the expiration of the consignment period. You will then be required to pick your items up within 7 days or they will become the property of THE ATTIC, INC. If you cannot be reached by telephone or email this will be considered an automatic forfeit of your items. Unsold furniture items may be picked up within 7 days of the end of the 90-day contract as well OR The Attic, Inc. will determine a lower selling price for your furniture and a new contract will begin for 30 additional days. It is the consignor’s responsibility to know what is on their account and to notify us within 3 days of picking up their end of contract items for anything missing or if you have received items that do not belong to you.

PRICING  All merchandise will be priced by The Attic, Inc. at fair market value. The consignment period is 90 days with the consignor receiving 50% of the selling price after the buyer’s fee*. A 10% price reduction at the end of 30 days and an additional 15% reduction from the original price at the end of 60 days will automatically occur on any unsold items. Although we do not negotiate contracted prices with buyers, if an item is not working properly, is damaged in any way after acceptance and/or may have been priced above value, THE ATTIC, INC. reserves the right to reduce the original contracted price accordingly to get the merchandise sold. Once your items have been accepted and entered into our system you will receive an email showing all newly posted items and prices. Any pricing and/or inventory discrepancies must be reported to The Attic, Inc. within 3 days for correction.

* A buyer’s fee is a charge incurred by the buyer. This is a store maintenance fee which will not reflect on the consignor’s account.
